Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is written on aged, stained paper and is mostly illegible due to fading and bleed-through from the reverse side. The script appears to be a form of early modern European cursive, possibly Italian or Spanish. The text is arranged in approximately 15 lines, with some lines starting with capital letters. The paper shows signs of significant wear, including discoloration, foxing, and a large circular stain in the center.
