Oct. 15. 1912.

My dear Professor Lampakis.

Please allow me to express to you my warm sympathy in this anxious & perilous time for Greece. Our prayers will ascend for the success of the Christian army & for the end of this age long oppression of our fellow Christians. I am ashamed of the selfishness & hypocrisy of the "Great Powers."

There is travelling strength of individual Christian faith & love in England & Europe that will regard in sympathy the brave efforts of the State. but there is little Christianity in our Diplomacy.

Yours sincerely in Christ J. J.
